Deacon Update

The last several weeks, it seems like my life has been full of changes. My daughter (Sarah Elizabeth) has begun full-day K-4 classes at school. We've recently sold our home and are in the process of moving. I recently celebrated a birthday that firmly places me in the middle age class. How did that happen so soon?

Truth is, we're always going through some type of change in our lives. Some come quickly, others are more of a process, but we're always changing. It's comforting to know that we serve a God who doesn't change. He is the same today as He's always been, and He will continue to be the same throughout the future. He is there for us through all the circumstances we face. We simply need to seek Him for guidance.

"I will never leave you; never will I forsake you." Hebrews 13:5

Deacons' meeting notes:

Last month's meeting focused primarily on upcoming events for the church. Be on the lookout for details about all the activities scheduled during the fall and winter months. There will be plenty of opportunities for you to get involved and help spread the good news of our unchanging God.

Tommy Geddings, CBC Deacon Secretary
