The 'Star of Education'

By Janette Fisher (2009)

Like many precious diamonds,
Good teachers are hard to find.
Yet, sometimes, one can discover
A rare and priceless kind.
It's not like all the others,
For it outshines the rest.
You know as soon as you see it
That this stone is the best.
A good teacher is that special gem.
They do far more than teach.
They make you feel, through learning,
There's no star you cannot reach.
In Art, they help you see differently
From new angles, not straight up and down.
They make Geography an adventure
As the world you travel around.
In History, they make you feel
You've lived and breathed the times,
And Math is not sums but puzzles
To stretch and tone your mind.
In English, they encourage you
To not just write, but feel,
So that each one of your stories
Will read as if it were real.
If you ever have a question,
You call and they are there
With patience and understanding.
Your problems are theirs; they care.
There's usually one in every school
Superior to the rest,
For they're the 'Star of Education'
And, as such, are totally priceless!
